BIBLIOPHILIA affects millions globally and is prevalent among adults and even very young children, as it can be developed at an early age. Many folks admit they've had the condition for years, even decades. It's actually a fun, educational, harmless condition for those infected by it. Bibliophilia is the love and appreciation of BOOKS.

Dr. Mime prescribes the perfect treatment for Bibliophilia.

Dr. Mime (Kenney DeCamp) is an international body linguist and Friends of the Selby Public Library Board Member. Dr. Mime recommends a visit to the Friends of the Selby Public Library Bookstore for an immediate remedy: A STAT order of at least two books a week to feed the brain, nourish the soul and to keep the mind active for healthy aging. He supports Bibliophilia as it becomes even more contagious as the word spreads about the low-priced donated books offered at the Selby Friends Bookstore, located inside Selby Library, downtown Sarasota.

Virtually a reading wonderland, the Friends Bookstore is manned by “friendly” and knowledgeable volunteers and is the largest fundraiser for the Friends of the Selby Public Library, a 501(c) 3 organization that supports Selby Library. The Bookstore is a pleasurable and relaxing place to browse and explore tomes in all genres. Shelves overflow with thousands of books for all ages and interests where bestsellers can be found and erudite patrons and “Brainiacs” who seek extraordinary out-of-print, rare or collectible titles can sift through treasures. Those wishing to build an attractive home library design with color and character for pure “eye candy” can do the job inexpensively. Book dealers have a feast of opportunity. Daily sale specials and collection displays are highlighted continuously. CDs, videos, records and magazines are also available for purchase. Some “regular” patrons visit the store at least daily for new treasures proving “Seek and ye shall find!”

Visit the Friends of the Selby Public Library Bookstore today and develop Bibliophilia. Renew your soul, travel the world, fulfill your dreams, grab the knowledge, find the information, entertain yourself or take an adventure—all via books. Become a Selby Friend member and receive a 10% discount on all Bookstore purchases.
